AF Gen. Davis Commands Hot Post On Formosa

TOKYO — Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, Jr., first Negro to be made a general in the U. S. Air Force, has been named vice-commander of the 13th Air Force and the commander of the Air Task Force 13 on Formosa.

The appointment was announced by Gen. Laurence S. Kuter, commander of the Far East Air Forces where Davis has been director of operations and training.

Formosa and the Philippines are considered by many military observers as the spots more likely to receive the first thrusts of a drive by Red China to capture strategic bases in the Far East.

It was also announced that the 13th Air Force has had its responsibility expanded to include aerial defense of Formosa as well as the Philippines.

Control of the group was also switched from the Far East Air Forces to the Pacific Air Force headquarters based on Hawaii.

GEN. DAVIS, the son of retired Brig. Gen. Benjamin O. Davis, Sr., was born in Washington, Dec. 18, 1912. He attended public schools in Cleveland and was graduated from Central High School in 1929. He attended Western Reserve University in Cleveland and the University of Chicago prior to entering the U. S. Military Academy in 1932.

He was graduated from the infantry school, Ft. Benning, Ga., in 1933 and from the Air Corps advanced flying school in 1942. Davis was ordered overseas in 1943 where he commanded fighter groups in Italy and over Africa.

In 1945, Gen. Davis was brought back to the States and placed in command of the 477th Composite Group, then stationed at Godman Field, near Louisville, Ky., and Freeman Field, Seymour, Ind.

On March 15, 1946, the Commandant of the 477th Composite Group, then stationed at Godman Field, near Louisville, Ky., and Freeman Field, Seymour, Ind.

Senate "Y" Staff Member Denies He Was Fired

A flood of unbridled speculation has engulfed the Committee of Management of the Senate Y.M.C.A. as result of its action last week in the case of one of the institution's veteran staff members.

The committee, a reliable source disclosed, voted to offer severance pay to Hopson Ziegler, presently serving as the membership secretary.

This led to speculation, since it could not be confirmed by official records, as to whether Ziegler had submitted his resignation or whether he was being dismissed, a little less harsh word for "fired."

Ziegler, a member of the Senate Y.M.C.A. staff for almost 30 years, said he did not know what the action of the committee meant, but he had not been fired nor had he tendered his resignation.

The rules of the organization require that before a staff member may be dismissed, charges be filed against him and he be given an opportunity to face the committee in a hearing of those charges.

In event of dismissal he is entitled to severance pay. Otherwise by continuing in service he is entitled to retirement pay upon reaching retirement age.

NO PAY settlement is involved, it is understood, in event of resignation.

John J. James, executive secretary, said he had no statement to make on the action of the committee in voting Ziegler severance pay until the matter was settled officially.

The same reliable source also disclosed that the committee at last week's meeting accepted the resignation of Dr. Paul A. Batties as a member. He served for several years prior to last year as the committee chairman.

Grand Jury? Nothing New For "Jitterbug"

Olevia "Jitterbug" Brown Houston, notorious knife fighter, who has left permanent scars on many and sent one man to his grave, was bound over to the grand jury Thursday of last week on the charge of assault and battery with intent to kill.

The charge came on her latest knife play, an affair May 23 during which she planted her switch blade in the neck of Mrs. Susie Watkins, 35.

Jitterbug, 28, 1987 Hillside avenue, reportedly chased Mrs. Watkins from the house and stabbed her as Mrs. Watkins ran for safety in the street following an argument which started during a party at Jitterbug's home.

JITTERBUG, arrested 40 times, including once for murder and several times for assault and battery with intent to murder, stabbed to death Simon Mobley, 28, 515 W. St. Clair, in an Indiana avenue tavern Dec. 2, 1953.

Though eye witnesses said she chased the defenseless man around the tavern and indicted her fact that the grand jury indicted her twice, she never had to stand trial.

Max Levy, proprietor of the Boulevard Tap Room, 2108 Boulevard Pierce, withdrew his application before the Marion County Liquor Board for a permit to sell whiskey at a hearing Monday.

A large group of citizens, some representing civic and religious organizations were on hand to protest adding the requested liquor permit to the two-beer and wine already held by Levy.

Attorney Frank R. Beckwith, spokesman for the protesters said the opposition was based on the beliefs that there are enough permits for sale of alcoholic beverages in the immediate vicinity.

Granting of the permit would tend to lower and decrease real estate values in the area.

Granting of the permit would tend to further demoralize the peace and dignity of the community and.

Granting of the permit would cause large numbers of ill-behaved, boisterous and profanity-using persons to create disorder and disturbances especially during the hours after dark.

NAACP Makes Plans To Force Desegregation

ATLANTA (AP) — The NAACP is demanding voluntary desegregation in all states where white and Negro children attend separate schools. And, unless such action is initiated before the new school terms begin in September, the association warned that court action will be brought against those who defy the Supreme Court's ban on separate public schools.

Over the weekend, NAACP officials from 16 states and the District of Columbia met here to map a program for seeking compliance with the high court's two rulings which declared segregation illegal and directed that the problem be worked out on the local level.

The conference issued a directive to all branches to petition immediately all local school boards to act in accordance with the new court order.

But, the directive said, "in the absence of any affirmative action by school board by the opening of schools in September 1955, our branches will take whatever action is necessary to get the school board to initiate the process of desegregation."

IN ANOTHER RESOLUTION, the NAACP emergency conference called upon the federal government to write into any school construction bill "language which would prevent such aid from being allotted to states which will use it to attempt to perpetuate a system of segregated schools."

Predicting that more litigation will be necessary before complete integration is accomplished, Thurgood Marshall, NAACP chief counsel, took issue with Georgia's Atty. Gen. Eugene Cook. The embittered southern state official had said the Supreme Court had opened the way for "a generation, perhaps a century of litigation."

"It will take more litigation," Marshall said, "but I guarantee you it won't be 100 years."

Marshall listed Mississippi, Louisiana, Georgia, Florida, Alabama and North Carolina as states where lawsuits likely will be necessary to enforce desegregation.

Suits already are pending in South Carolina and Virginia. On Continued on Page 7

Oklahoma Colleges Wipe Out Color Line

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla. — Oklahoma colleges, bowing to the law of the land established by the Supreme Court of the nation, voted Monday to open their doors to Negro students next September.

The formal action was taken by the State Board of Regents in an 8-to-1 vote. The state has maintained separate schools of higher learning in line with the "separate but equal" doctrine long in practice throughout the South, but recently repudiated by the U. S. Supreme Court.

Parents, Friends Cheer Attucks' 192 Graduates

More than $10,000 was awarded to Attucks high school graduates in the form of scholarships Tuesday night as 192 students received diplomas during the school's 25th annual commencement exercises at Cadle Tabernacle, attended by 4,000 parents and friends.

Geraldine Hayes, top-ranking student and president of the June class, received highest honors as each of the 19 members of the upper decade came in for a share. Grier M. Shotwell, member of the Board of School Commissioners, presented the diplomas and Dr. Russell A. Lane, principal, awarded scholarships.

The entire graduating class, assisted by the choir, presented an oral reading entitled, "The Greatest of These," under the direction of Mrs. Lillian Pierce.

"Love" was set out as the greatest of all things known to man. "Love guides, comforts, forgives, heals and strengthens us," the class stated.

"Love your fellowman and love freedom for yourself," the group prompted.

The senior prom was held at the Indiana University Medical School Student Union Building following commencement.

Indiana Agencies Would Loosen Mortgage Funds

Wheels of finance started turning this week to make it much easier for Negroes and other minority groups to secure mortgages for home buying.

The Indiana state committee of the Voluntary Home Mortgage Credit Program (VHMCPC) reported after a meeting Monday that more than 200 Indiana home loan applications are being considered in the cooperative government and private enterprise effort to eliminate the need for direct government lending.

The new setup is based on cooperation of private loan agencies, many of which have heretofore set up insurmountable barriers.

Cruiser To Aid In Search For Unsuspected "TB'ers"

Attucks high school principal and faculty members, The Recorder, P.T.A. and religious groups are combining their talents and energies with the Marion County Tuberculosis association for the heaviest attack on the threat of TB ever staged in this city's Negro neighborhoods.

A new $45,000 X-ray cruiser, capable of generating its own electricity will be used for the first time in Indiana beginning June 20 and continuing through June 24, in the Attucks neighborhood.

Because it can generate its own electrical current, this modern X-ray laboratory can go up one street and down the other. Used extensively in Pennsylvania, the new cruiser will make its first appearance in the Hoosier capital in front of the Indianapolis Recorder.

The Cruiser will leave the Recorder's office at 2:00 P.M. Monday, June 20 and proceed to its

Seek "Escape" For Youth Who Killed Brother

Parents of a 17-year-old youth held in jail for the fatal stabbing of an 18-year-old brother, prepared this week to attempt to have their defendant son released from jail and escape prosecution.

Ralph Eldridge Sadler is charged with murder for his admitted slaying of James William Sadler Jr., May 3 in the Sadler home at 941 Congress.

Holmes C. Kuykendall, attorney for Sadler, recently filed a petition asking that the youth be let to bail. A habeas corpus hearing was scheduled to be held Friday afternoon, June 10, before Judge Scott A. McDonald, Criminal Court 1.

James W. Sadler Sr., and Mrs. Irene Sadler, parents of the youth told police at the time of the killing they did not wish their son prosecuted.

MRS. CLARA SADLER, the dead youth's wife of only four days, told officers she also did not wish press charges.

The 16-year-old widow said her young husband was stabbed during a fight with his brother which started when her husband resented his brother's treatment of her, according to police.

She stated that she was sitting before the dresser in the bedroom applying makeup before going out with her husband when her brother-in-law came in and wanted to get something out of the dresser drawer.

Her husband told the intruder to wait until his wife finished and an argument ensued during which James shoved Ralph out of the bedroom into the hallway, Mrs. Clara Sadler told police.

Ralph whipped out his switch-blade knife and shoved the point into his brother's heart, it was reported.

Mr. and Mrs. Sadler, members of Christ Temple Apostolic Church, said their son's death was an accident.

"He didn't mean to kill James," they asserted.

Since the night of the killing, the dead youth's wife has become mute when question about the incident.

No one would make a written statement for police.

Dr. Aaron Scott Pharmacist Attack Victim

Alexander (Alex) R. Stout, 41, former railway mail clerk who is co-owner of the 12th Street Pharmacy at 12th and West, was jailed Wednesday on charges of assault and battery with intent to kill and shooting in the city limits.

William Aaron (Doc) Scott, 60-year-old registered pharmacist at the business place, charged Stout beat him in the face and head with an ice cream dipper then shot at him with his .32 calibre revolver.

Dr. Scott, who lives at 1214 Brooks, said Stout attacked him in the heat of an argument between them. After beating him, Scott said, Stout got his gun from the safe and fired at him.

Stout, 4125 Clarendon road, had the revolver in his hip pocket when Patrolmen Felix Howard and David S. Jeter arrived on the scene.

Dr. Scott, bleeding from multiple wounds in the face and head, was taken to General hospital, where he was treated and released.

first location on the corner of West and Tenth Streets. Attacks principal, Dr. Russell Lane, and other school officials, will accompany the cruiser and help in a door-to-door campaign during each day's X-ray hours.

Thirty-five Attacks summer school teachers will be asked to help fill out X-ray cards and act as hosts and hostesses.

DR. LANE has also asked for the assistance of the Attacks PTA along with all Church groups in the neighborhood. But even with this help from Attacks, more volunteers are needed.

Anyone in the Attacks neighborhood wishing to help is asked to call the office of the Marion County Tuberculosis Association, ME. 5-4538, and you will be assigned to the X-ray laboratory.

The TB Association would like to have volunteers stationed as close to home as possible so note the schedule printed below and check the time and day the cruiser will be in your block.

Additional X-ray schedules will be available at the following businesses, all located on N. West street:

The Marris Grocery, 1047; Jim's Market, 927; Wickliff Cleaners, 1003; 12th Street Pharmacy, 12th Street and West; Service Cleaners, 1203; Annabelle's Liquor Store, 956, and A & A Liquor Store, 1321.

Free balloons supplied by the Jacobs Brothers Funeral Home, Wickliff Cleaners and Jim's Market will be given to the children bringing their parents.

LAST YEAR nine cases of active tuberculosis were discovered in the Attacks neighborhood. This is an exceedingly high total for a neighborhood of 4,000 to 4,500 adults.

It has a ratio of 3.58 cases per thousand persons. This is far above the national average of one case per thousand.

A total of 50,000 persons received chest X-rays without charge last year in Marion County through the cooperation of the Indiana State Board of Health and the Tuberculosis Association.

This year the Association has set a new goal of 60,000 X-rays and has asked the State Health Department's permission to use the State owned X-ray units more in Marion County during the remainder of the year to reach this goal.

To date the State Health Department and the Tuberculosis Association have taken over 18,000 X-rays since January 1.

THE ENTIRE ATTACKS neighborhood survey will take in an estimated 20 blocks and the X-ray cruiser will travel from 16 to 20 streets. Here are the times and places the cruiser will stop:

MONDAY, June 20—West Street as 10th, 2:00—5:00 p.m.; Camp Street at 10th, 5:30—7:00 p.m. and 771 West 9th Street, 7:15—9:00 p.m.

Honor Rev. Perry Going On Trip To Holy Land

REV. H. A. PERRY

Tribute was paid this week to Rev. H. A. Perry, venerable pastor of St. John AME Church, on the granting of a trip to the Holy Land and the World Baptist Alliance in London by members of his church.

St. John is thus said to be the first AME church in Indiana to send their pastor to the sacred citadel of Christianity.

The decision to send Rev. Perry was effected by an unanimous vote of the church members several weeks ago.

Naturally elated, Rev. Perry told the members he felt that St. John had taken a leading and high stand.

The week-long celebration is in the nature of a bon voyage to Rev. Perry. Rev. Andrew Brown, pastor of the St. John Baptist Church, was guest speaker Monday night.

Other nightly speakers included: Rev. Walter M. Edwards, pastor of the Seventeenth Street Memorial Baptist Church; Rev. J. C. Hayes, new pastor of Scott Methodist and Rev. Paul Ayers, pastor of Barnes Methodist. The ministers were accompanied by their choirs who participated in the evening programs.

Friday night, June 10 was scheduled to be "All Methodist Night" with denominational ministers and their choirs participating.

Rev. Perry, pastor of St. John for almost six years, had been a minister for 35 years. He, during this period, was formerly principal of a public school in Kokomo, Ind., for 35 years.

He will fly from New York July 12 to London, then to Paris, Rome, Egypt, Lebanon and Jerusalem.

For many years the Carnation Milk company has been making contributions to the improvement of formula feeding. Its success has been phenomenal and recognized nationally. IT HAS WORKED closely with doctors and baby specialists and its product has gained the reputation of being the leader in its field. Many doctors reported gratifying results of improved feeding methods followed by parents who seek medical advice in the raising of their children. Because the public is seldom aware of this, the Carnation company has been anxious to bring these developments to light by such community projects as the annual "Healthy Baby" contest. The Recorder heartily joined in the promotion of the contest because it believes there is no more worthy cause in the world than promoting good health among children. Winners of the contest and pictures of the three top honors will appear in our next issue.

riers to loans to Negroes seeking mortgages for financing the purchase of homes on reasonable terms.

Up to now, Negroes in Indiana have had to rely solely on Federal Housing Administration (FHO) and Veterans Administration (VA) loans. Frank H. Dunn, vice-president of the American United Life Insurance company and chairman of the Indiana committee, said after the meeting in his office Monday that representatives of Indiana lending institutions voted to designate where loans will be made available, subject to the national committee approval.

THE VHMP has been successful in winning support of sizeable banking, life insurance, savings and loan mortgage companies to the idea of making some standard-risk loans under FHA and VA programs in areas where these loans are not available from local institutions.

As now modified, before a loan of federal money can be granted under the VA direct lending program, the application first must be submitted for consideration by private lender under the VHMP.

If the application is turned down by two local lending institutions, it may then be presented for assistance through the VHMP.

MEANWHILE in Washington representatives of 16 Negro lending agencies from all parts of the country met with Albert M. Cole, administrator of the Housing and Home Finance Agency to complete plans for greater participation on their part in making FHA insured loans available to Negroes and other minority borrowers.

Cole said that the rates, terms, and basis on which minority people are able to secure housing from white and minority lending agencies in many instances are not the same as those offered whites.

He mentioned reports the government has received which show that some minority-owned lending agencies charging as much as 5% Premium and 8% interest on mortgages.

Various reasons were given in defense of these high rates by Negro lending agencies.

In keeping with the new policy, the Air Force decided to inactivate the Lockbourne unit and redistribute its 2,000 members throughout the USAF. Upon completion and some additional school-

Cosmo Knights Score Success With Indiana Roof Formal Dance

Social Scene

By RICHARD C. HENDERSON

If you happen to run across a member of the Cosmo Knights club soon and find his head just a wee bit enlarged, don't criticize him.

The men scored an all-round success with their summer formal dance, held last Friday night at the Indiana Roof.

In addition to the understandable success on its own merits, for one thing, the men had somehow obtained Wes Montgomery and his very excellent band to make sure the music kept up with rest of the offerings.

Secondly, the hosts wisely kept from having lavish decorations to detract from the beauty of the hall itself, preferring a single, unusually beautiful miniature garden near the entry. A profusion of exotic tropical greenery formed contrast to the rich red of the flowers, themselves not eclipsing a bubbling fountain in the middle.

All this made a luxuriantly floral setting for the white wrought-iron settee, which was kept constantly warm as couple after couple posed for photographs.

Coming as a fitting climax of the dance was the display, toward the end, of the atmospheric ceiling effect for which the Indiana Roof is noted in these parts. More than one person thought the ceiling had actually been rolled away, and that it was the sky he beheld above.

Only the regularity of the stars twinkling and the lighting placement hinted to the unknowing that the sky was quite man-made.

En passant I must mention that the ladies provided a veritable fashion show, many of them showing to advantage exclusive French room gowns and exclusive patterns.

Members of the club chose black, gray and white plaid ties and cummerbunds and black display handkerchiefs as their identifying motif.

As guest of the vice-president, Albert M. Booth, and his wife, my sister, Mrs. Robert H. Slater, and I trekked, after the dance, over to the Walker Casino, where an enjoyable breakfast party was being featured for a smaller group of people—there had been about 1,300 at the Indiana Roof.

The informality of the breakfast party was so relaxing, I enjoyed it almost as much as the dance, once I got in a character at the door, possibly thinking I was a mendicant who planned to make off with all the food, was somewhat hesitant about admitting such a shabby looking nonentity as I.

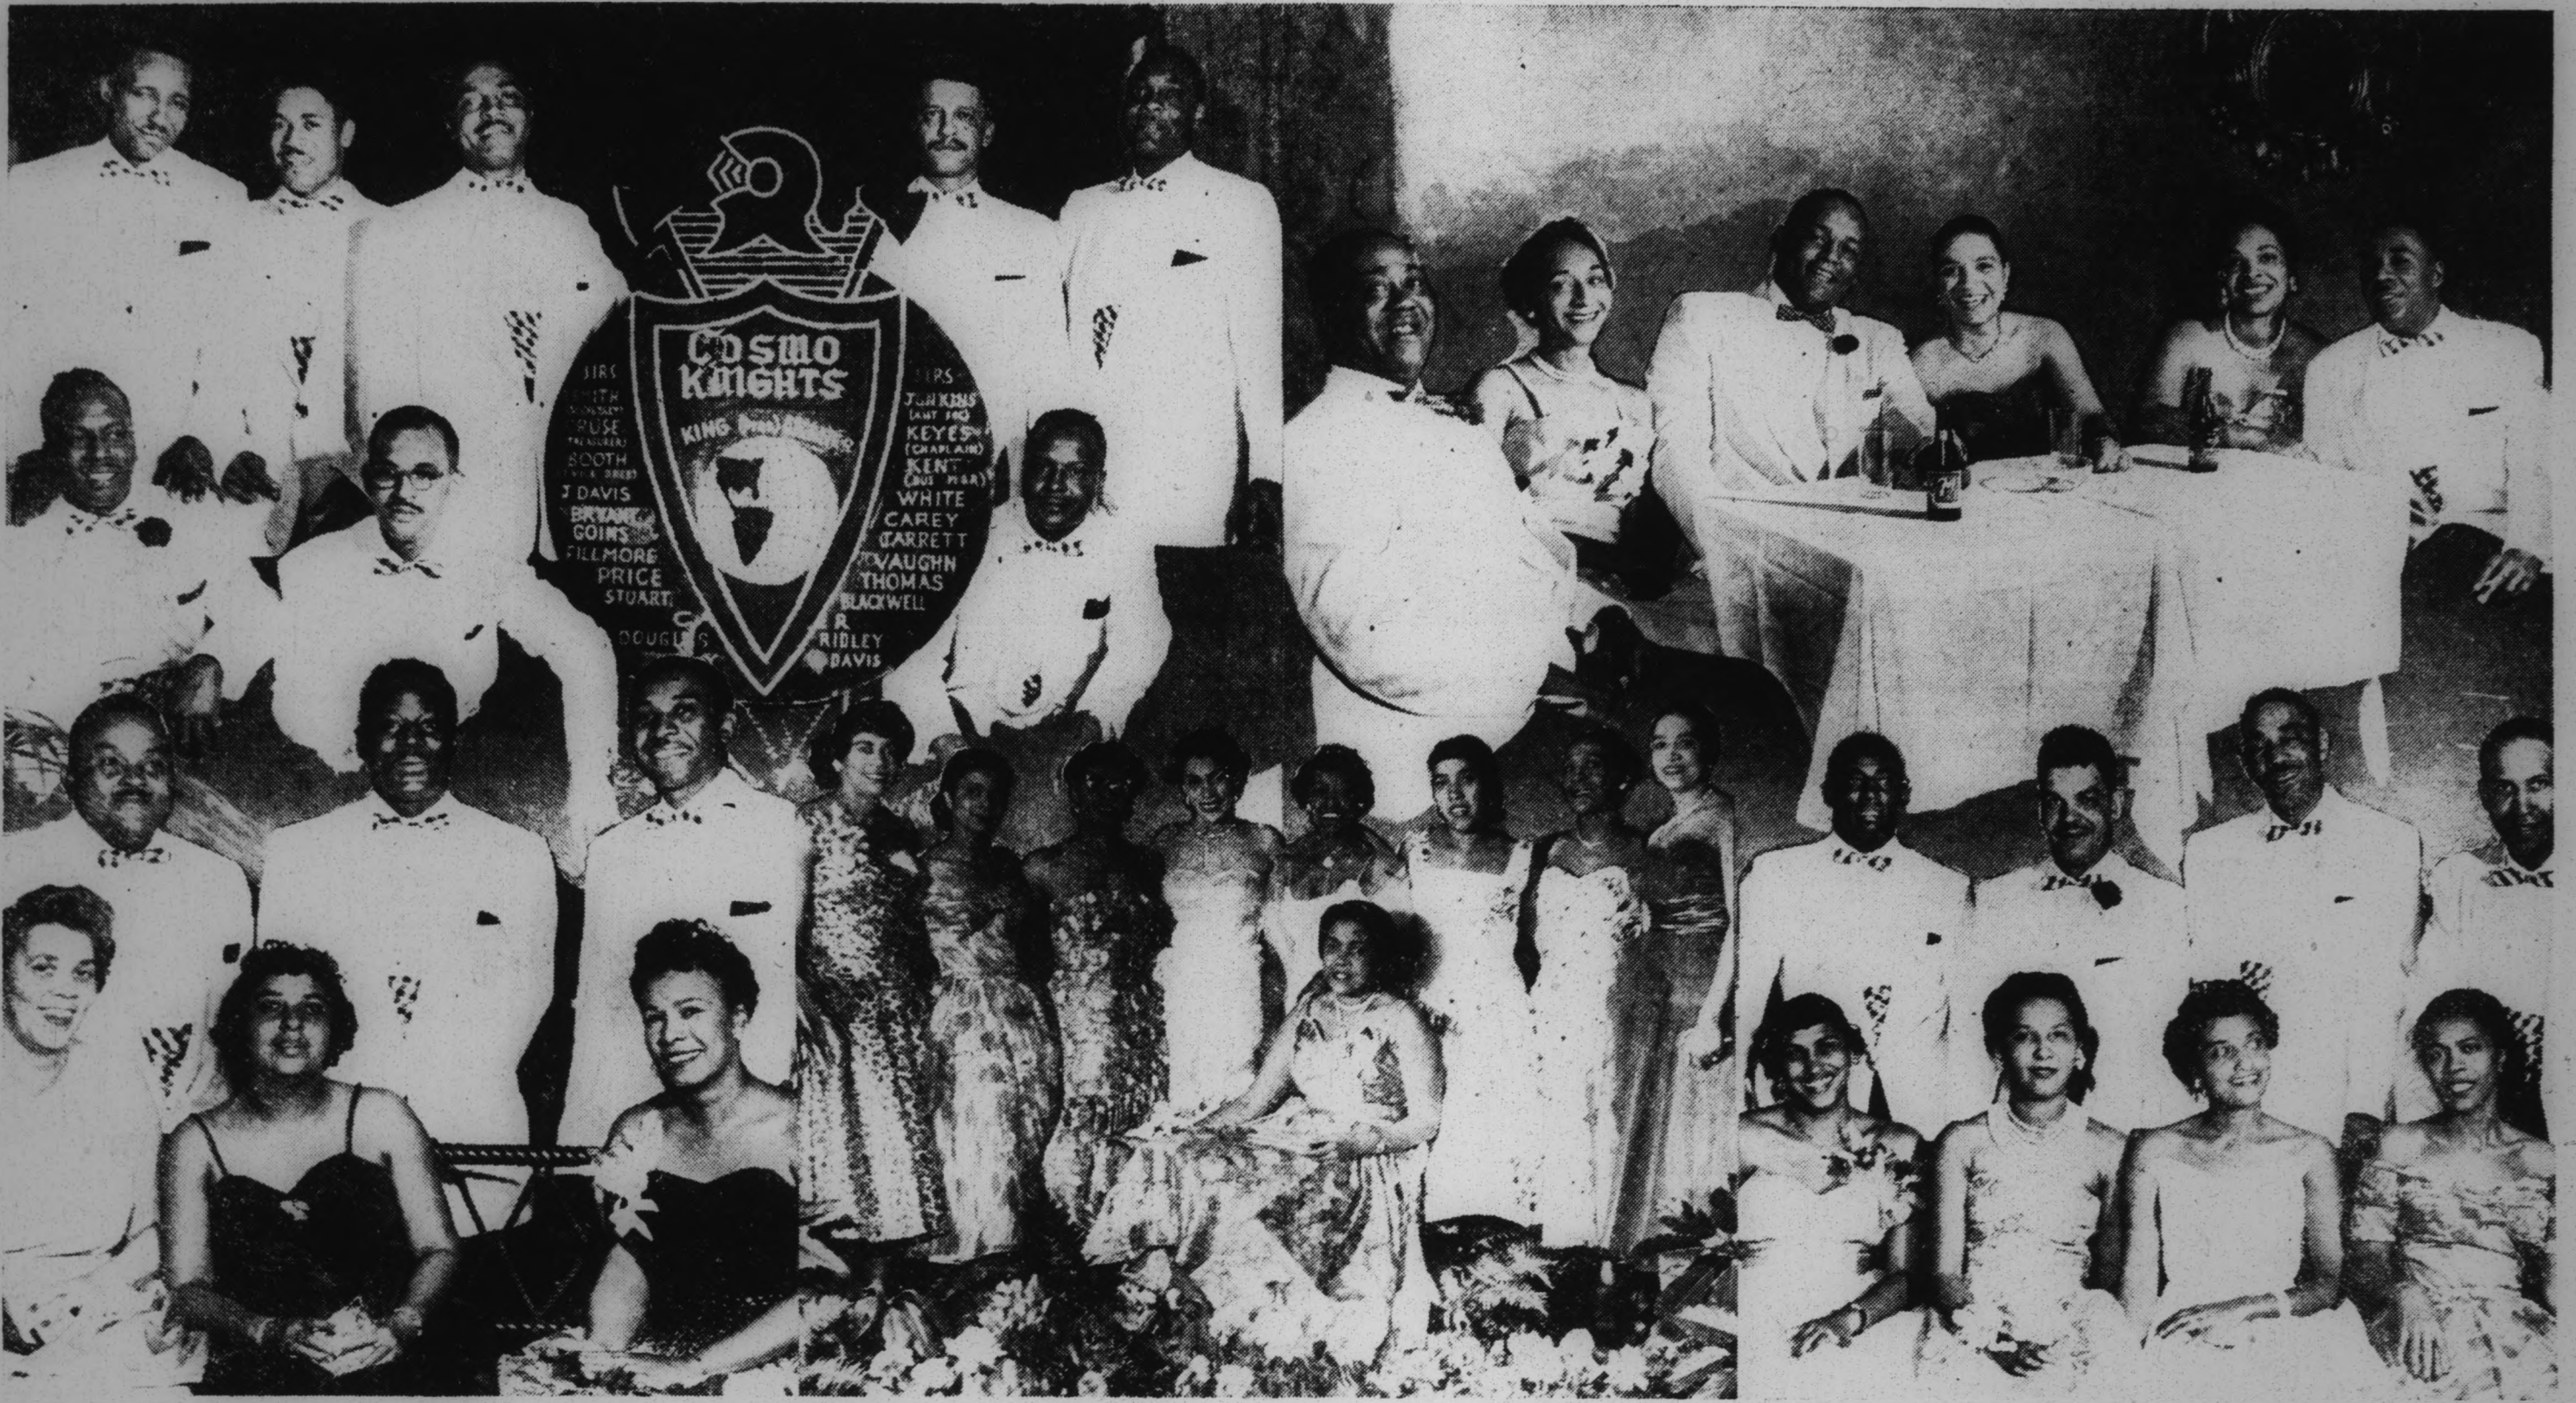

Music then was provided by "Floorshow" Jones and his combo, with "Floorshow" giving a sample of the exhibitionism which won him the descriptive nickname.

Members of the popular club not shown in the accompanying picture are Otis Keyes, Orval Carpenter, Conway Davis, Thomas Douglas, Roy Pope, Jr., Samuel Vaughn, James White and Joseph Stuart.

Speaking of men's clubs, the Wyleway Bridge club closed its social season Saturday night at the home of Owen Woolridge. Guest for the evening was James Mize. Prize-winners were Bruce Mason, Owen Woolridge and Louis Hill, Sr.

The Fortnightly Literary club met last week at the home of Mrs. P. Lavelle Walker, with Mrs. John Powers discussing the motion picture "Blackboard Jungle" and Mrs. Eschol McCain presenting as the beaux arts feature a review of a recent article in Charm magazine by Eleanor Roosevelt.

Officers for next year were installed, and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. Henry L. Greer is president. Hostesses for last Friday's meeting of Gaillard Unit No. 107, American Legion Auxiliary, were Mesdames John Martin, Stoughton Mendonhall, Meritow Ward, Isaac Bacon, John Lee and Minnie Jackson.

In addition to election of officers, reports were heard on various departmental activities.

Succeeding Mrs. Wilma Suter as president was Mrs. Adelaide Henderson, and other officers are Mesdames Pearl Williams, first vice-president; Marie Bartee, second vice-president; Maude Gaillard, recording secretary; Wilma Suter, corresponding secretary; Mary S. Battles, treasurer; Sara Furman, historian; Hazel Manlove, chaplain; Matilda Hayes, sergeant-at-arms; and Virginia Jenkins, parliamentarian.

The Book Lovers club met last Sunday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Guy L. Grant.

An enjoyable affair last week was the informal reception at the home of Miss Lillian Naomi Wortham at which she and Mrs. J. F. Johnson honored Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Cable, here from New York City as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Mercer Mance. The house was beautifully decorated with cut flowers.

Among the guests were members of the Mary E. Cable club, a group honoring the memory of the dentist's mother, the late Mrs. Cable, an outstanding pioneer educator here.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Hummons, Evanston, Ill., were guests over the weekend of their parents, Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Hummons and Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hill.

Mr. Hummons resigned from the executive secretaryship of the Emerson Street YMCA in April to accept a position as field representative of the Chicagoand Clearance Commission.

His application was approved by both the mayor of Chicago and the Illinois Housing Board.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil R. Powell have as guest for two weeks their cousin, Dowan Bell, of Seattle.

Also in the city for a while is William R. Brown, Columbus, O. Bill was formerly associated with the Willis Mortuary here.

Mrs. Lillian Lott Taylor has been moved to her home after a serious illness at General Hospital. Friends may visit the well-known social worker at 803 North California Street.

PIXIES IN COTTON: Members of the popular Pixies club donned cotton frocks for their fourth annual "Cotton Frolic," held last Saturday night at the Masonic Hall. Bob Womack and his orchestra furnished music for the dance. Pixies standing are Mesdames Delores Wright, Harriet Snordon, treasurer; Mary Keller, business manager; Anna Taylor, reporter, and Miss Betty Taylor, while seated are Mesdames Arletta Harvey, Shirley Martin, president, and Ethel Harden, vice-president. About 300 guests enjoyed the affair, seated at tables arranged in cabaret style. A colorful banner, stretched across the hall at the north end, reminded patrons that it was indeed a "Cotton Frolic."

TRIOPLETTES HAVE FIRST FORMAL: A Paris garden was the theme for the Triplettes' first annual summer formal, held Saturday night at St. Rita's Hall. The hall was transformed into a Parisian garden decorated with blooming trees, gay trellises covered with vines of flowers and the inevitable natural rock fountain. The theme was extended to the gaily decorated tables with giant blooming straw hats and flower-covered garden tools and umbrellas. After the dance many guests were entertained at breakfast parties held in the members' homes. Members of the club shown are Mesdames Dorothea Young, Shirley Loyd, secretary, and Edna Jackson, assistant secretary; the Misses Doris Bolen, Helen Nathan, chairman of the dance committee, and Maxine Scott; Mrs. Delores Weeden and the Misses Susie Billingsley, Jean Morris, vice-president; Maxine Smith, Jean Jones, president, and Janet Hughes, treasurer.

Shirley Lawrence—Reginald A. DuValle

Witherspoon United Presbyterian Church was scene of the double-ring ceremony which united in marriage Miss Shirley Virginia Lawrence and Reginald A. DuValle on Saturday afternoon, May 28.

The rites, attended by only the families and a few friends, were performed by Rev. Clinton M. Marsh before an altar decorated with candelabra, palms and cut flowers.

The bride wore a ballerina length gown of pale pink Alencon lace and tulle. The scalloped V-shaped neckline of the tight-fitting bodice was emphasized by the short lace sleeves, while sheared ivory satin, falling low in the back to form a huge bow, pointed up the drop waistline.

The shoulder-length veil of illusion was attached to a band of ivory satin. Pearl accessories were featured, and she carried a hand bouquet of green orchids and trailing ivy leaves.

Mrs. Charles McMurray, Jr., of Gary was her sister's matron of honor. A bouquet of pink roses contrasted with her gown of mint green chrysanthemum.

Willie Kirk served as best man. At 7:30 that evening the newlyweds received guests at a beautifully arranged reception at Flanner House, which was decorated with palms and cut spring flowers. A spray of vari-colored spring flowers surrounded the three-tiered wedding cake which centered the service table.

Frappe punch was served from a huge crystal bowl, and crystal service lent to the beauty of the table.

Serving as hostesses for the reception were Miss Betty Jo Davis and Mesdames Camillus Head, C. Farragut Allen, George Bolen, Rutus Myers, Joseph Stuart, Andrew Spencer, Johnnie Landrum, Walter Rasdall, Harold Smith, George Dymun, Eric Suter, William Rice, Bernard Greene and Roy Pope.

Mesdames Smith of Hartford, Conn.; Landrum, Rasdall and Byrum are sisters-in-law of the bride.

On the Tuesday night preceding the ceremony, the bride was feted at a shower at Flanner House, given in her honor by the hostesses, and on the following night members of her Tuesday Night Bridge club showered her.

Mr. and Mrs. DuValle are at home at 3660 North Capitol avenue.

RECENT BRIDE: Mrs. Reginald A. DuValle was Miss Shirley Virginia Lawrence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vance, 2622 Paris avenue, before her marriage Saturday afternoon, May 28. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. DuValle, Sr., 1202 Harlan street.

Voice of the Eastside

By MARY P. MCGUIRE

"God Will Take Care of You" was beautifully sung by Mrs. Elsie Garrett, a Daughters of Isis member, during the funeral services of Mrs. Ella Cowan, 1724 North Arsenal avenue, at the King and King Funeral Home last Monday afternoon.

Mrs. Nellie Porter opened the services, and others participating were Mesdames Helen Ridley and Artie Price and Rev. Bernard Strange of St. Rita's Roman Catholic Church. Pallbearers were Mesdames Mary Davis, Helen Ridley, Ruby Clark, Irene Taylor, Artie Price and I. McWilliams, all Daughters of Isis.

Many mourn the passing of Mrs. Cowan, who had lived on Arsenal for more than thirty years. She lived a full life in the church and community, serving thirty years as clerk of New Bethel Baptist Church and serving as Lady attendant for Peoples Funeral Home, Ware and Gilmore, and the King and King Funeral Home as well as being very active in politics.

Another funeral at the King and King Funeral Home was that of Mrs. Elizabeth Jones, held Tuesday. She had been in the Booker Nursing Home and had lived with Mrs. Clifford Williams, 1305 Yandes street. She was a member of Emmanuel Baptist Church, of which Rev. Roy Hatcher is pastor. Many will miss her from the community.

News comes to my desk that Mrs. Evelyn Davis, sister of Mrs. Martha C. Jones, the florist at 610 Highland avenue, remains ill in General Hospital. The Ole Scribe was also informed that Mrs. Edna Lewis, 504 Dor-

Now a word about old friends—Mrs. Mary E. Skates, accompanied by her daughters, Josephine, Barbara and Elaine, motored to Columbus last week to visit Mrs. Hazel Washington.

Others in the party were Mesdames Orville Eakers, Henrietta Lewis and Joan Douglas. Mrs. Eakers is the mother of Mrs. Skates and grandmother of Mrs. Lewis. They enjoyed the beautiful scenery of Brown County.

Many witnessed the sixth annual beautification program of the Eastside Better Business and Civic League last Sunday afternoon, attended by representatives of the park board, yard parks committee and Schools Nos. 23, 26, 37 and 50. The Eastside principals, Mrs. Jeanette Cary, Mrs. Maude Flack and Emory A. James, were awarded beautiful cups by the league.

Too much credit cannot be given the committeeworkers, Mesdames Beatrice Hollifield, Elizabeth Tandy, Cora Wilson, Helen Wolford, Ethel Morley and Ella M. Hollifield and Messrs. John D. Baker and Howard Connell, for their very fine services.

Florence Frierson—Rev. Dallas R. Howie

For her wedding Miss Frierson, daughter of Mrs. James Frierson of Columbia, Tenn., chose a gown of blue lace with quarter-length sleeves. Her fingertip veil was highlighted with seed pearls and iridescent beads. She wore a rhinestone necklace and a waist corsage.

Mrs. Ione Wilson was matron of honor, while Rev. Robert Wilson served as best man.

A large number of guests attended the reception which followed. A beautiful lace cloth covered the table which bore the bride, four-tiered wedding cake and crystal service set. Lighted tapers cast a soft glow over the table.

A variety of light refreshments was served along with the orange frappe punch.

Assisting as hostesses at the reception were Mrs. Albert Johnson, a native of the bride's home town, Mrs. Wilson and four of the bride's co-workers at the RCA Company, where she has been for eight years. Mrs. Lady Smith and the Messrs. Beatrice Johnson, Virginia Gresham and Bessie Woodson.

The couple received a congratulatory telegram from her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lotson, Chicago.

Following the reception the couple attended services at the bride's church, the Church of God.

A variety of light refreshments was served along with the orange frappe punch.

NEW GARFIELD BAPTIST CHURCH INTERMEDIATE SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS

Thrifty Sunday School Students Plan Outings

The Sunday School classes of New Garfield Baptist Church are travelers.

Each year for the past nine years the children of the school have been taken on trips out of the city during summer vacation.

Belle Island Park at Detroit is the destination this year with the trip scheduled for July 30. Already visited are Forest Park Zoo, at St. Louis, the Cincinnati Zoo, Chicago's Riverside Amusement Park, and Washington Park in Milwaukee, Wis.

THE CHILDREN themselves raise the money for these trips in special annual financial drives.

The intermediate class, composed of children from 8 to 10 years old, raised the largest amount of money during this year's drive. Alvis Majors instructs the class.

Beginners Class No. 2, instructed by Mrs. Katie Smith, was second highest.

REV. CHARLES POOLE is pastor of New Garfield Baptist Church and Smith H. Cheatham is superintendent of the Sunday School.

The Sunday School maintains an average attendance of 125 at its Sunday morning meetings.

Other teachers are Mrs. Anna

Couple Handed Stiff Sentences

A man well-known along Indiana avenue was given 10 years in the state reformatory and a female associate was sent to women's prison for 2-to-5 years Monday when they were found guilty of auto banditry and second degree burglary in connection with a series of burglaries.

Jefferson T. Suber, 28, who signed a statement admitting six burglaries along College avenue and on 42nd street, and Mrs. Hallie Cole, 27, 1645 Alford, were sentenced by Judge Saul I. Rabb, Criminal Court 2.

Suber and Mrs. Cole were arrested April 16 after police stopped them in a car in which they were riding with no lights in the 2000 block of N. Temple.

Land's garage at 2401 Bloyd avenue, had been broken into and some cash and a quantity of cigarettes had been taken.

OFFICERS said they found 79 packages of cigarettes in the car the couple occupied.

Thomas Cole, Mrs. Cole's 30-year-old husband, was arrested as police believed he was also with his wife and Suber in the burglary. He was released, however.

Suber was sentenced on the auto banditry charge and Mrs. Cole was sent to jail for burglary.

In his statement, Suber admitted taking part in burglaries at Hooks' Drug Store, 4202 College avenue; Haag's Drug Store, 4601 College; Crum Jewelry Store, 670 E. 42nd; Rose Room Beauty Shop, 4204 College, and the Masonic Temple, 664 E. 42nd.

MARLBORO EVERY TIME: Discriminating women smokers, in this case a few who exemplify in personal appearance their love of beauty and the finer things of life, are ardent lovers of the new, improved Marlboro cigarettes.

Melvin Montgomery, alert Marlboro cigarette representative supplies a demand for the brand gratuitously to this bevy of beautiful young girls while attending Delta Sigma Theta dance at the IBEW hall.

Many thousands of women and men smokers not only like the new Marlboro for its excellent flavor and dependable filters, but also its new, handily handled flip-top package, the latest improvement in the packaging of cigarettes. Mr. Montgomery spent several weeks introducing the Marlboro brand here.

Convicted On Dope Charges

Three persons convicted of violation of the 1935 Narcotics Act were fined and sentenced to jail over the past week as the local narcotics bureau continued to sweep the despicable element of dope activity toward the city limit.

Elwood "Doc" Collins, often arrested bootlegger and dope peddler, was given a suspended 2-5-year sentence Friday of last week by Judge Scott A. McDonald, Criminal Court 1.

The conviction stemmed from his arrest Jan. 12 at 543 Douglass where he was caught with 29 capsules of heroin by Policewoman Thelma Donahue and Patrolmen William Raper and William Rowe.

Also taken at Collins' home were four eye droppers and four hypodermic needles.

MARY ROGERS, 31, 1716 N. Arsenal avenue, was sentenced to 180 days in the state women's prison and fined $100 and costs Tuesday by Attorney Edward N. Suber, special judge in Municipal Court 3, who found her guilty of violating the narcotics law.

She was also fined $25 and costs for obscene conduct and $1 and costs for resisting arrest.

Some People Say --In Our Town

By W. ALEXANDER CHAMBERS

Dr. Herman L. Shilber, head of the city's public schools, recently announced an eventual departure from policy of appointing teachers to positions in the city's schools. Beginning with the fall term it appears that teachers of "fitting pedagogic stature" all other things being equal may be appointed to teaching posts in any or all public schools.

Caught up in the vast scope of related incidents is a long course of "trial and error" in our way of life which in the beginning was to be "a new order of things." Otherwise "freedom or justice" and the other way around "justice or freedom" as conceived by the Founding Fathers of the Republic have been lost to some men. Therefore "freedom or justice" has been lost to all men.

But in paraphrasing a philosophical poet, "this truth with in my mind, I will ever rehearse; that in a boundless universe, is boundless better, boundless worse."

James O. Birt, Republican majority nominee addressed a recent GOP meeting dedicated to closing the ranks of discordant factions in the city or county. Mayor Alex M. Clark and various department heads of the city were guests of H. Dale Brown, 11th District GOP chairman at a luncheon.

This makes things look good on the home front (Marion County) for the November election. Again some political observers venture it may enhance the role or voice of Mayor Clark in 11th District GOP affairs. The results to follow in state level GOP affairs remains to be seen. One guess is that with James O. Birt in the City Hall in Indianapolis, H. Dale Brown may loom up as a significant power in state-wide Republican politics.

Phillip L. Birt, Democratic majority nominee, or his supporters are reported to be slightly taken back by the turn of things in local GOP camps. Mayor Clark's "grade of progress" revealed or uncovered campaign "props" on which James O. Birt's contest may be pitched.

The Birt camp had not anticipated the like and expected to garner a goody measure of independent and Republican votes through discord heretofore in the ranks of local Republicans. Some political observers venture the closing of ranks by the Republicans spells a losing contest for Democrats. Some of the "brown boys" in fact are saying "H. Dale" will be one of the biggest GOPers in the state in 1956.

Robert A. O'Neal, Sheriff of Marion County, recently announced the appointment of a four-member bipartisan board to move to take his law enforcement division out of politics. Members of the board are Howard S. Mills,

Thomas J. Beasley, Ronald Gale and G. L. McFarland. They will serve two-year terms.

Mr. Beasley, Washington Township resident is an executive of the Eli Lilly Co. Mr. Mills is a Decatur Township farmer. Mr. McFarland is a Franklin Township farmer and Mr. Gale a machinist lives in Wayne Township.

Sheriff O'Neal observed it is hoped the board will make a thorough study of enforcement conditions and the needs of his department in answer to rural law enforcement problems. In recent months Sheriff O'Neal was not necessarily in accord with a proposed metropolitan county police plan. But it appears now he has his own answer to the proposal.

Cary D. Jacobs, local attorney is being boosted for the Indianapolis school board by a circle of friends. Mr. Jacobs widely known business man is a member of the Jacobs family. He is a family man and his wife Mrs. Jessie Jacobs is widely known in civic and women's affairs of the city and state.

Rufus C. Kuykendall is still a potential candidate for some post in foreign service under the U. S. State Department some of his intimate friends contend. Mr. Kuykendall assistant corporation counsel of the city of Indianapolis, an appointment of Mayor Alex M. Clark, is legal adviser to the board of public safety.

Following the May primary when Mr. Kuykendall lost the GOP councilman nomination in the Second District rumors were that his chance of receiving a federal appointment had been dimmed. Today his very close friends say his chances are still highly promising.

Gov. George N. Craig in his recent executive report predicted the state's surplus might exceed $40 million by mid-1957. He maintains the $80 million surplus of last winter will hit no lower than $40 million in mid-1957.

Gov. Craig said he regarded as "false economy" the piling up of an idle surplus while the function of state government are "pursued either incompletely or not at all." He reaffirmed his support of a toll road construction program to "provide substantial relief for the traffic pressure on our state highways."

Elsewhere legislative leaders contend or warn that the state's $704 million budget for the next two years will reduce the surplus to near nothing by July 1, 1957. But Gov. Craig, it is said, may be in a federal post by that time.

Rev. Morris E. Golder, Daughter Sharing "Graduation Time" Honors

Rev. Morris E. Golder, prominent local minister, and his daughter, Frances Joanne, are sharing graduation honors this year.

Rev. Golder will receive the Bachelor of Arts degree August 5 at Butler University, with a major in religion. A native of Indianapolis, he moved as a young man to St. Louis, but returned here when he was unable to continue his education there because of lack of facilities at that time for training Negroes.

Upon his return here, he enrolled at Butler, going to school in the evening for the first semester, then transferring to day classes.

He did this while attending to his church program and making his contribution to the community by working in the YMCA and the Interdenominational Ministers Alliance of the city.

Rev. Golder, former pastor of Christ Temple, plans to enter seminary this fall and continue his work toward the Bachelor of Divinity degree.

He is pastor of Grace Apostolic Church here and as an assistant in pulpiter conducts a religious broadcast every Sunday night.

Miss Golder has finished her high school career at Shortridge high school and received her diploma Wednesday night of this week.

She attended School No. 87 and graduated from School No. 41 before entering Shortridge. She hopes to enroll in business school this fall.

Baptist Leaders Condemn "State Interference," See Dangers to Church Freedom in Recent Case

Leading Baptist ministers of the state, concerned over the recent action of Judge Norman E. Brennan of Superior Court 3 in appointing a receiver for the Sixteenth Street Baptist Church, this week approved a formal statement composed by Dr. J. A. G. Jordan, pastor of Good Samaritan Baptist Church, setting forth the Baptist position on religious liberty and the absolute separation of church and state.

Rename Rochelle State Education Board Member

Dr. Charles E. Rochelle, principal of Lincoln high school, Evansville, Indiana was reappointed this week to the commission on general education, Indiana State Board of Education by Governor George N. Craig.

In making the reappointment Governor Craig complimented Dr. Rochelle on the fine work he has done in the general commission during the past ten years.

Dr. Rochelle has been the secretary-treasurer of the commission on general education for the past ten years.

He is the only Negro in the United States holding an office on a state board of education.

Dr. Rochelle received the Doctor of Education degree from the University of California (Berkeley) 1942. He also holds masters degrees from Indiana State Teachers College (Terre Haute), and Indiana University (Bloomington). He has been connected with the public schools of Evansville for the past 34 years.

Believing as we do that every Baptist church is free to direct its course as the Holy Spirit shall direct, we resist the right of the state to interfere with the business affair of a Baptist church, be it as it may.

Every Baptist church which is a pure democracy directs its own course, looking to the Christ and the Holy Spirit for guidance and help, and not to the courts of our land.

There are laws within a Baptist church that are God-given to settle and direct all affairs. The law of the church is simply the will of Christ as expressed in the Scriptures.

Baptists were the first proponents of absolute liberty, just as true liberty, equal and impartial liberty. "Freedom of conscience, unlimited freedom of thought, and the right of the individual to follow his own path."

None of the religious wars, religious massacres and religious persecutions would have risen in Europe if the great truth had been recognized that the state has no

THE FIRST AMENDMENT to the Constitution of the United States, guaranteeing freedom of speech, freedom of religion and the right to petition was adopted largely through the activity of Baptists.

Because of the uncompromising stand they have taken in favor of religious liberty and the absolute separation of church and state, Baptist preachers have been whipped, fined and imprisoned.

Obadiah Holmes was kept in prison several months because he would not accept deliverance at the cost of his convictions.

JOHN BUNYON was kept in Bedford jail in England 12 years because he would not compromise his religious views.

It is recorded that during the Colonial times, when Baptists were severely persecuted because of their religious convictions, there was never a wavering note from their unyielding contention for unrestricted religious liberty.

concern with the religious opinions of men and no right to interfere, even in the slightest degree.

THERE HAVE BEEN tendencies here recently to isolate the constitutional provision for the separation of church and state by an attempt being made by the government to invade the realm of religion and dictate to, coerce and impose restrictions on the churches.

Even Baptist conventions cannot impose restrictions on a Baptist church. However, it should be borne in mind that a church becomes a member of a Baptist district or state convention by adopting for its rule of faith and practice Christ's law as laid down in the New Testament.

It is taught by the sisterhood of churches that whenever a church repudiates or fails to be governed by this law, it forfeits its right to hold membership in any Baptist organization.

Shall we as Baptists sit supinely by and trust in some phantom of hope while an encroachment is being made upon our God-given and constitutional rights?

God forbid!

When the state invades the spiritual sphere of the church and interferes with the free exercise of the pastor and members, a legal precedent is being established for another invasion to be made and deprive us of still more of our religious freedom's.

THE BAPTISTS of our state and nation must rise up in indignation, in a solid phalanx at any effort on the part of the state to interfere with, destroy or abridge our religious freedom.

We must maintain an unwavering vigilance lest we be deprived of that which has been given to us as a blood-bought heritage.

Let us contend for that eternal, irrevocable principle of absolute separation of church and state, for which many of our forefathers bled, suffered and died.

ANY INTERFERENCE by the federal government with religious bodies in spiritual matters is unconstitutional and a violation of the plain teaching of Jesus Christ?

The two are forever to be kept separate, independent and distinct, the church operating in the field of religion and the state in the field of government.

The state is not to interfere in the affairs of the state.

Remember the word of the Apostle Peter, "It is better to obey God than man."

Supreme Court Hands Dixie A Loophole

Most of the widely remembered pages of history highlighting the epochal deeds of great individuals, organizations or movements of the past are etched in scintillating detail of what was done in a very positive sense.

No less spectacular and equally far reaching is the supplementary decision of the United States Supreme Court handed down May 31, the concomitant of its world reverberating decision of May 17, 1954 giving the sanction of law to the notion that separate public schools are unconstitutional.

The latest unanimous decree of the nation's highest tribunal regarding the evolution of the status of the emancipated Negro citizen is bound to become increasingly notable for what it did not do.

Two courses of action were clearly open to the high court justices as they faced the vexatious problem of implementing their courageous decision striking down the long-held doctrine of "separate but equal" upon which much of the general racial segregation here was maintained.

The Court had been strongly urged by legal representatives of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People who handled the five cases upon which the decision of a year ago was based, to set a timetable outlining the practical steps to be taken to end segregation of public schools pupils with definite time limits.

Another clear-cut proposal, urged by representatives of most of the states practicing racial school segregation, was to permit them time to work out the problem according to the feelings and sentiments of the localities involved.

The Court chose the latter course, that is, not detail the specific manner in which the solution of the segregation problem should be handled by those states against which it was directed, but permit them "time" to end the nation's destructive evil gnawing at the vital organism of democracy. There are many in and out of the South who sincerely laud the Court's choice.

We could do likewise were we not cognizant through long contact with the vagaries of human nature of the unsoundness of a course of leadership based upon fear.

Racial segregation imposed by a dominant group upon another whether a majority or minority in a society but lacking the weapons of political, social or economic controls, is a form of human slavery.

A recent poll by the celebrated Gallup Institute of Public Opinion indicated that only 56 percent of the American people as a whole are definitely against any form of racial segregation in this vaunted democracy of ours.

Did the high Court consider this in making up its mind how the problem of ending school segregation should be solved?

We shy at the unwelcome thought that fear of what the reaction of many would be had they directed forthright the Court's decision.

We are not in a position to say the justices fashioned a clever compromise. Viewed as an adjunct of democracy, segregation is either right or wrong in principle.

The Court said more than a year ago it is wrong. We believe a direction by the Court that the practice should be ended NOW, so soon as possible—within several years—would have changed the minds of those who wish devoutly to continue it.

A nation that has famously withstood the shock of war, the threat of economic deterioration, the debilities of mounting crime and domestic lawlessness, and the unconscionable thrust of Communism, can perform the operation necessary to rid itself of an evil practice that stupifies it before the whole world.

Tuberculosis Still A Grave Menace

Fifty years ago tuberculosis was fearfully regarded as the giant killer among the diseases that brought incalculable misery to our communities.

Within that span of time, however, much progress has been made in pulling the fangs and lessening the deadliness of the once-dreaded disease, thanks to the courage, sacrifice and scientific achievements of the path finders of the medical profession, the research chemists.

National statistics of the past few years are almost vocal with a promise that soon the insidious killer, tuberculosis, shall take its place in the limbo of the vanquished, like small pox, scarlet fever, yellow fever, leprosy and, in this country, typhus and syphilis.

Although national attention is centered on polio at the moment because of dramatic happenings, the national and county tuberculosis associations warn that TB is far from being conquered to the point it may be considered a negligible factor among the sickness and death enemies of human well being.

They point up the startling fact that TB is still the leading killer among contagious diseases and is far from being conquered.

Latest figures for Indiana show 8,272 Hoosiers with records of TB, and of those 1,701 were hospitalized, 2,684 were under some other medical supervision and the remainder, 3,887 were under no type of medical supervision.

In other words, more than 30 percent of all Hoosiers dying of TB today were not hospitalized at time of death.

The Marion County Tuberculosis Association, with the cooperation of The Recorder, has selected certain areas in which the TB rate is exceptionally high for a determined fight against the disease's virulence.

A frontal attack will be made next week with a carefully planned door-to-door canvass designed to persuade every resident of the Attucks high school area to take advantage of a free chest X-ray expedited through the use of an X-ray laboratory housed in a huge cruiser that will travel the area for five days beginning June 20.

Many persons are not aware that the chief danger of TB revolves around persons harboring unknowingly smoldering disease that too often flares into the active stage.

The chest X-rays will unfailingly reveal any trace of the disease in the persons examined, thus permitting remedial steps to be taken in time.

The entire program is based on the principle of "an ounce of prevention" and deserved the full support of every citizen.

MISCELLANEOUS MUSINGS

By T. C. Johnson

Muffing Grocery Employment

Recorder editor Marcus C. Stewart suggested this cursory survey of Negro employment in Indianapolis food stores. A complete investigation would require a great deal of time, energy and effort.

T. C. Johnson

More over, the scant attention the findings would be likely to get makes it inadvisable for one person to spend weeks making inquiries of the 37 retail chain groceries and 650 known independent retail food stores, to say nothing of wholesalers, food warehouses and produce dealers.

If enough individuals and organizations really cared, it would be an easy matter to determine the exact number of colored persons working in food handling stores and precisely what they are doing. The city could be divided into small districts and all desired information gathered easily and quickly by a large number of persons doing very little individually.

WHAT'S THE MATTER? Are we ever to learn and apply the advantages and procedures of mutual aid? Or have most of us lost all initiative and ambition?

Interviewing personnel directors and store managers was interesting and revealing. Although assured that nothing but facts were sought, some were surprised. A few were evasive and slightly impatient.

One company employs 30 colored persons (mostly men) as order fillers for its different stores, as stock clerks, carry out and isle men and produce clerks.

Another uses 10 men in half its stores. One two-store organization hires 5 colored men, one of whom buys the stores' beer and pop.

Of the others one is a driver and three are porters. Another large concern has 11 colored men and 1 colored woman clerk. The men are stock, stack and produce clerks and porters.

One grocery business with many stores and much Negro patronage employs no colored persons.

PROBABLY 200 or more Indianapolis colored persons work in food stores. The number is too small for the amount Negroes spend for food.

A few have jobs of a little responsibility but the work of most of them is of slight significance.

Perhaps any other group on earth except the American Negro situated as Indianapolis colored people are would operate adequate wholesale and retail food business of their own instead of whining eternally about what the white man won't let it do.

There is no reason whatever except indifference or plain stupidity why Indianapolis Negroes should not have as large and fine food stores as anybody.

If, however, we are too inept or unconcerned to do business ourselves, we could make use of our economic power for our own benefit.

THE INDIANAPOLIS NEGRO spends at least $200,000 weekly and ten and a half million dollars yearly for food. Such a market properly manipulated, could yield us employment commensurate with its magnitude.

And the more people who had good jobs the better off everybody would be. Lawyers, doctors, churches and business establishments would be aided materially.

Two were cordial and cooperative.

Indianapolis colored grocery workers are mainly men, a woman being found here and there. There is at least one check-out girl, who receives customers' payments for what they buy.

SOME of the stores approached do not use a single Negro. The question of employing or not employing colored persons seems to be largely in the hands of the store manager. The owners of at least one great firm are favorable to Negro workers.

One store has 15 colored men and 2 colored women, 12 of them being part-time employees. One is manager of the produce department and the women are produce clerks. Some carry merchandise to customers' cars.

There are isle men, who are responsible for keeping goods on the shelves in definite isles. There are porters in considerable numbers.

ASKED if he had much trouble with Negro employees coming late, staying away from work or not performing their duty satisfactorily, one manager replied: "I have had very little of such annoyances. I speak to them two or three times about any shortcomings and if they then do not mend their ways I let them go."

One company employs 30 colored persons (mostly men) as order fillers for its different stores, as stock clerks, carry out and isle men and produce clerks.

Another uses 10 men in half its stores. One two-store organization hires 5 colored men, one of whom buys the stores' beer and pop.

THE COLONIAL FRONT

By A. J. Giggins

Praties and Point Freedom

LONDON (ANP)—For the benefit of those who are not Irish, "praties" is the colloquial term for potatoes among the Irish peasants and "point" means just that.

In bad times, Irish peasants could not afford meat or any other food, but usually they had potatoes, so a herring would be bought and suspended from the ceiling in the center of the table while the family ate boiled potatoes, each one at the herring before putting it in their mouths, and imagining a bit of herring going down it.

That is the kind of freedom which the colonial powers have offered the peoples of the colonial empires, and a better smile would be difficult to find.

The herring of freedom is suspended, in the constitutions with have been drafted for colonials, and promised to others where alleged self-government has not yet been granted, as in Kenya, Central African Federation, Uganda, and Tanganyika and other colonies and mandated territories.

THE COLONIAL PEOPLES will have to be content with a potato diet insofar as real self-government is concerned while gazing hungrily at the suspended herring.

Freedom, like the British Welfare State, is considered essential for white Britishers, but unsuitable for dark-skinned peoples.

The tragedy of the whole rotten business is that Great Britain herself is far from free and also is utterly incapable of developing the people of the colonial Empire so they find enough capable men and women to govern their own country.

Erie, 50 miles away from England, won her freedom after many decades of fighting for it, but is still economically dependent on the United Kingdom markets for her goods and services.

The poor girls who flock across seeking escape from the bad conditions in Erie and turn to prostitution, the lads who flock across and take any job this is going are pathetic testimony to the fact that true freedom has eluded the Irish.

IN A POOR COUNTRY it is difficult to find money for the education of all the people, difficult to find jobs for all, and difficult to compete in the markets of the world with countries better equipped for mass production, but there must be something wrong with the policy of a country where such a record of service and such a wonderful reserve of manpower allows its greyhounds to be fed on the best steak and eggs while children get praties and point and in order to escape from the freedom it permits, have to return to the slavery hated by their forefathers.

In India, out of a population of 370,000,000 whose freedom from the British was won over 300,000,000 are still slaves of ignorance and there is no indication at all that the government of the Republic of India has a plan or the means whereby they can be granted the knowledge that will make them free.

Tech bondage of their frontiers seem to offer an insurmountable abstacle to their freedom.

IN U. S. A., that same bondage of frontiers is increasingly restricting Americans' freedom.

The rare now slaves of a policy and becoming isolated from sources of real wealth by adherence to it.

Strangely enough Americans who won their independence and to often boast of being free and independent seem to concentrate on regimentation and standardization in education, demonstrations, housing and in production methods.

This may be a reflection on the gregarious instincts of so large a proportion of the population of U. S. A. which originated in Central and Eastern Europe.

However that may be, it is true that such regimentation does not readily produce originality in thought and tends to seek tighter regimentation in times of stress—in brief it encourages the herd instinct, which, if allied to a govern-

Persistence of Dixie Bigotry

There was a time in Northern schools when every pupil knew that the North and the South engaged in a civil war, between 1861 and 1865 and that the North came out victorious.

In recent years that has been changed somewhat. The Civil War is no longer the Civil War but the War between the States, a phrase invented by Southern fabulists, whose books pass for histories in the lynch belt, and the unquestioned hero of the rechristened war is Robert E. Lee.

This new trend in the history books could be dismissed lightly if it were not for the fact that so much of American history since 1876 gives credence to the theory that the South was the real winner of the internecine war of 1861-65.

The twelve year period called the Reconstruction Period of our history saw evidences of a Northern victory but beginning with the Hayes compromise in 1876, the philosophy of the South began to dominate the national body politic. That compromise allowed the South to deal with what it called the "Negro problem" in any manner it saw fit.

THE RESULT was a series of anti-Negro laws sustained by the United States Supreme Court and respected by the Congress and every President up to and including General Eisenhower.

While racial segregation was becoming the law of the Southland it was becoming equally the custom of the Land of Lincoln.

National policy in regard to the Negro was kept carefully in line with Southern wishes.

When the South disliked the idea of Negro federal job holders, Negroes disappeared from the scene in many positions like the Registrar of Deeds as well as from local collectors of custom and postmasters.

Negroes in the army were limited to a few segregated units and they disappeared for a time from the navy.

After Negro troops in segregated units had performed heroically in the Spanish American War, successful attempts were made during World Wars

One and Two to place most of the Negro personnel in the armed forces in non-combatant segregated units.

When protests were made by Negroes, those who protested were immediately charged with disloyalty.

IN 1919 Rep. James F. Byrnes suggested that all Negro newspapers be suspended and that W. E. B. DuBois be cited for disloyalty to the United States for suggesting that a segregated army could not very well represent a democracy.

Not only was Mr. Byrnes not reprimanded, he was rewarded by being promoted to the position of Secretary of State during World War Two and was made Governor of his state of South Carolina thereafter.

Segregation in public places started in the South but was allowed to mushroom in the North usually in violation of laws on the statute books.

The Negro motorist, coming out of New York via the Holland tunnel, found on his right a hot dog stand where he could not sit down and eat and that picture was repeated as he drove across the country from North to South or East to West.

The pattern of residential segregation had its inception in the South but its greatest practice in the North.

THE RESTRICTIVE COVENANT, born in Louisville, reached full maturity in the cities of the "democratic" North.

The idea of the "white man's floor" being the Negro's ceiling" was first voiced in the South but was carried out with fullest vigor by the employers of the North.

Even lynching, the South's toast to the stone age, was tried out in the more enlightened North with more than one lynching bee taking place in the state of Indiana.

And while in most of the Presidential administrations since the Civil War bills were introduced in Congress to outlaw lynching, the Northerners who have always outnumbered the Southerners in the national legislative body never had the courage to displease the South by outlawing this barbarity.

AND UNTIL 1917 the Supreme Court of the United States, did not dare to brave the wrath of the South by rendering a decision favorable to the Negro and until May 17, 1954 it refused to concede that it was wrong in 1896 when it issued the "separate but equal" decision.

When it had the chance to put some teeth into its school segregation decision last week, it seemingly ignored all pleas except that of the Eisenhower Administration's Attorney General and gave to the South a much milder treatment that it deserved as a part of the greatest nation on earth.

And after the May 17 decision last year and the May 31 decision this year, the Southern biow-hards and Torquemadas were allowed to issue defiant statements and threats without so much as a n official reprimand when on the other hand it was publicly stated that Paul Robeson should be drawn and quartered for suggesting that Negroes would refuse to fight in a segregated army and any Negro who expressed agreement with Robeson was immediately branded a red or a fellow traveller.

THE FACT that Northern institutions like schools, universities, hospitals, hotels, motels and resorts have generally refused Negro patronage on the ground that it might offend their Southern clientele and the fact that army officials have advised foreign governments to discourage fraternizing between Negro troops stationed in their countries and the native women give weight to the idea that the South not only won the Civil War but that it won the North over to its point of view.

That point of view is sustained in every phase of American life.

The ridiculous roles assigned to Negroes on the stage, in the movies and on radio and TV are in keeping with the silent and expressed desires of the undying Confederacy.

The fact that two of the greatest films (box-office wise) of all time, "The Birth of a Nation" and "Gone With the Wind" were apologies for white supremacy is an additional argument in favor of the South's belief that it won its war.

SOME DAY, perhaps, there will rise a generation of Americans who will acknowledge that the American flag is superior to a confederate cap and that Abraham Lincoln and Robert E. Lee kept America on the path toward democracy and that gnawing at the vitals of domestic democracy is as much treason as dealing directly with the enemy.

Supreme Court Decision Wise

The eagerly awaited Supreme Court order on segregation has come, and it is difficult to imagine how it could have been different in tone and substance.

Only the ignorant and glibly expected an order demanding instant implementation of the decision of May 17, 1954.

How ever irksome may be the ways of segregation, as a curse, it cannot be wished away, nor can it be instantly abolished by court decrees.

It took time for segregation to fasten itself onto the vitals of the nation; and it is going to take time to break its damnable hold on our great nation's aspirations and possibilities.

But the death knell of segregation has been sounded, and it is just a matter of time and a great wrong will be righted.

Pharaoh must let the people go! The Supreme court has decreed it; circumstances are conspiring to demand it, and the Kingdom of God has promised it.

Many things have conspired to change the moral climate; so that such curse as segregation mitigates against the public good and therefore it has the curse of public opinion marked against it.

A TRADITION that needs the apologies that segregation currently requires, is doomed.

ment inclined to totalitarianism, will inevitably impose that ideology in its extreme form in crises.

USA MAY NOT as yet, suffer from praties and point freedom, but the Gresham Law in human values will inevitably pull it down to the level of those who do, unless steps are taken in time to restore equilibrium between all world levels.

In African possessions of colonial powers the herring of freedom in various forms is being waved do, the 99 percent of those who do, unless steps are taken in time to restore equilibrium between all world levels.

That the Supreme court did not fix a deadline was exceedingly fortunate; for by placing the responsibility upon the segregated communities to free themselves, there is applied a moral pressure that is dangerous to defy.

Had a deadline been set the segregationists would have resorted to an inaction and a passive resistance that would have embarrassed without end the courts of the land.

But with no deadline, the pressure, moral pressure of the gravest sort, is being applied; and it is a pressure that cannot be evaded if the accusing finger of the world is not to be pointed at the Old South, hugging into death its ancient delusions.

Whereas the courts would exercise legal pressure, moral pressure is more effective and between these two pressures the advocates of continued segregation are about to encounter trouble of the direst sort.

FINANCIAL PRESSURE has long since been a consideration in the segregationist situation.

It is becoming more and more obvious that the South cannot maintain two educational systems of equal efficiency and the very moment the "separate but equal" fallacy is exposed, the possibilities of staggering costs face the South to maintain the two separate but equal systems of education.

The South however resourceful cannot bear the burdens entailed.

It is just a matter of time before the South under financial pressure must sit down and count the cost of segregation.

are, for the most part, absolutely dependent on African cheap labor, natural wealth and geographical position to survive should the crisis hit them.

Nobody in Europe or America, like fish and are will-cas appears to realize that ing to wet their feet to obtain that article of diet.

COLONIALS and all colored peoples are tired of praties and point freedom and since at Bandung they have seen and heard that the only obstacles to all mankind enjoying a full diet of freedom and all that the term implies are composed by those who boast of the benefits and privileges ention. It is going to be a great day when some Negro economist sits down and makes out the bill and present it to the South showing the South the financial facts in the case.

The financial pressure of segregation is considerable and when to this the moral pressure of the recent court decision is added, we have a situation that more and more will be intolerable to an intelligent South.

WHEN ALL the institutions of learning in the South have gotten in their fine work, it will be impossible for the Old South to defy the mandates of common sense, to let the Negro go.

These pressures are so many plagues softening up Pharaoh for the ultimate decision to let the people go.

Financial pressure, legal pressure, religious pressure, common sense pressure, humane pressure all are being currently applied to the segregationist situation.

It is fervently to be hoped that Negroes will exercise patience and common sense which will be demanded by the course the Supreme court pursued in the premise.

It must be remembered that the Supreme court that failed to set a deadline is the same Supreme court that ruled against segregation in the first place.

We must not become parties to that sector of the Southern press that heckled and gainsaid and abused the Supreme court in its ruling of May 17, 1954.

THE OPEN DEFIANCE offered by a considerable sector of the South in its opposition to the Supreme court decision of last year must not have a counterpart in our stubborn or subtle opposition to the ruling of yesterday. We must be law-abiding, even when the law runs counter to our aspirations for the moment.

And the greatest of these pressures is moral pressure.

joyed in the "free world" they plan to defend, colonials and colored peoples are all set to get it.

KINGS ON THE THRONE: Gary Froebel's half-mile team which won the event in the recent track meet to give Froebel the margin of victory stands on the king's throne. Joe Johnson accepts the medal from Charles E. Day, member of the IHSAA Board of Control, as Bob Buck, Charles Smith and Albert Redding look on.

Sepians Win 7 Firsts, Crack 3 Marks as Froebel Regains Cinder Crown

Sepia athletes rolled like thunder in the recent state prep track meet, setting three of five new records and winning firsts in seven of the 13 events as Froebel of Gary annexed its 11th team championship by scoring 24 points.

Gary Roosevelt, winner of the title three times in the last four years, and victor over Froebel in both the sectional and regional meets this year, came in second with 14 points.

Crispus Attucks—the so-called Basketball School—made the best showing in the school's history, registering seven points to finish 10th among the 83 schools, far ahead of any other Indianapolis entrant.

Bob Buck, a winged-heeled speedster, was the star of the show and almost the whole show for Froebel as he stepped to first in the 100-yard dash, won the low hurdles in record-breaking time, then anchored the winning half-mile relay team.

The Froebel Flash zipped over the century in :09.0 and clipped five-tenths off the hurdles mark, finishing in :19.1. He was blinding-fast as he brought the relay time to 1:30.9. Charlie Smith, Joe Johnson and Al Redding were the other members of the team. Otes Archer of Marion cracked the high hurdles mark, running the sticks in :14.5, one-tenth off the old mark. Clyde Austin, a barrel-chested South Bend Washington middle distance runner who won the 440 last year, dashed to a new record in the quarter-mile, hitting the tape in :49.1, one-tenth under the old record.

Marvin Sturgeon of Cannelton and Russ Garriott of Hobart set the other records.

Sturgeon ran the half-mile in 1:56.6, far under the 1:56.9 set back in 1933.

Garriott, a 330-pounder, heaved the shot 57 feet 7 inches, two feet below the standard.

Charley Lyons, Ft. Wayne high jumper, retained the title he won last year, clearing the bar at 6-1 1/2. This was considerably below the 6-3 1/2 he cleared the week before in the regional.

Curt Smith of Evansville Lincoln won the 220-yard dash in :21.9.

Naverne Wille, Columbus's widely-heralded miler, came in with the very good time of 4:23.0, a little less than three seconds over the record set by Max Truex of Warsaw last year.

Bob Lavery, Frankfort, won the broad jump with a leap of 22-2 3/4 and Joe Carroll, New Albany, took the polevault, clearing at 12-6 1/2. Elkhardt's mile relay team won that event in 3:25.1. Members of the team were Neal Sawyer, Don Barber, Henry Robinson and Bill Robinson.

Pendleton and Robinson Cut From Braves

TOLEDO (ANP)—Versatile Jim Pendleton and relief artist Humberto Robinson were released last week by the Milwaukee Braves to the Toledo Sox on a 24-hour recall basis.

The 29-year-old Pendleton, who plays both the infield and outfield and can catch in a pinch, was in his third season with the National League team. He is formerly Brooklyn Dodgers property.

Robinson, the slender Panamanian righthander, a castoff from the New York Yankee chain, had been used mainly in relief by Milwaukee, this year, his first in the majors. He had a record of two victories and no defeats and recently turned in a sterling seven-inning relief stint against the Cincinnati Reds.

Pendleton batted .220 in 71 games with the Brave in 1954. He once hit three home runs in a game with the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1953. He has seen little action this year, appearing in a few games as a late-inning replacement and a right-handed pinch hitter or pinch runner.

Milt Campbell Gets 5 Firsts In AAU Meet

ELKHART—Milt Campbell, Indiana University's Olympic decathlon star, showed that he is in shape and will be ready for the 1956 Olympics by sweeping to five first place in the state AAU track and field meet held here last Saturday night.

The Elkhart Athletic Association won team honors, finishing with 51 1/2 points. Hobart was second with 28 points and Anderson, the only other team entrant, finished third with 10. More than half of the 75 athletes entered were unattached.

Milt scored 25 points, grabbing top honors in the 100-yard dash, 220-yard dash, 120-yard high hurdles, high jump and discus, all in the senior division.

Campbell, who formerly held the national AAU decathlon championship and placed second in the same event in the 1952 Olympics, stepped off the century in :09.8 and ran the furlong in :21.8.

Milt took the hurdle event in :14.5, threw the discus 144 feet 1 inch, and cleared the high jump bar at 5 feet 8 inches.

WILLIE IS GREAT—SO IS DUKE SNIDER; WHO IS GREATER?

By FRITZ POLLARD

NEW YORK (GLOBAL)—The discussion is on again as to who is the better centerfielder—Duke Snider of the Dodgers or Willie Mays of the Giants. It raged all last season and the belligerents have picked up where they left off last year, with opinions pretty closely "following party lines." The Dodgers think Duke is the greatest and the Giant fans think Mays is the boy.

It also seems that in a poll of major league managers by Sport Magazine, Mays came out on top. They seemed to feel that the kid had the speed, power and throwing arm that gives him a slight edge over the contender on the Brooklyn side. Some of them stressed Duke's experience, but then pointed to Mays as one of the brightest prospects to come along in years.

Newk Wins 10th

Big Don Newcombe gave up only four hits and himself blasted a double and a single as he pitched Brooklyn to a -1 win over Cincinnati Wednesday, his tenth of the season without defeat.

Newcombe carved his ninth straight victory without defeat last Saturday with a 6-1 pitching gem against the St. Louis Cardinals at Brooklyn. Roy Campanella, Gil Hodges and Frank Kellert blasted homers for the Dodgers.

GEORGE CROWE HITS STRIDE WITH BRAVES

CHICAGO (ANP)—George Crowe literally has had his ups and downs trying to establish himself as a major league first baseman. Now, judging from his recent slugging spree, the big left-handed hitting and throwing first baseman for the Milwaukee Braves is on his way at last.

Crowe was inserted into the lineup when Joe Adcock, who has been the Braves' regular first sacker for two seasons, seemed unable to unteak himself at the plate. Big George delivered immediately. His home run was the deciding blow in a win over the Chicago Cubs, and he came through with two hits, one a homer, that led the Brave to a double victory over Cincinnati Memorial Day.

Before he was installed as a regular—for the time being, at least—Crowe's only distinction this season was hitting a pinch home run that ruined a no-hit, no-run bid by Warren Hacker, Chicago Cub's righthander.

Crowe's recent exploits at the plate brought his average to .417. He has hit four homers and one triple and driven in 11 runs. A former basketball player with the Harlem Globetrotters, George has been in the Braves' system since 1950. He played first with Pawtucket (R. I.) in the old New England League, leading that circuit in batting. The following season with Hartford in the Eastern league Crowe was again the pacesetter at this plate. He moved in 1951 to the old Milwaukee Brew-

Yanks, Beware! Minoso's Back

CHICAGO (ANP)—Orestes "Minnie" Minoso last week found himself in a very strange situation.

He was riding the bench for the first time since joining the Chicago White Sox. However, Minnie was not in a batting slump as might be suspected. He was recuperating from a beating he received at the hands of pitcher Bob Grim of the New York Yankees.

That was on May 17, and shortly afterwards Minoso entered Chicago Mercy Hospital after complaining of dizziness. X-ray later showed that he suffered a slight break of the left cheek bone.

But "Minnie" was back in uniform as the Sox rounded out a two-game series with the Boston Red Sox.

He did not play in the Red Sox series, however. The White Sox are saving him for the Yankees.

INDPLS. DODGERS DEFEAT ARCADIA

ARCADIA—The Naptown Dodgers defeated the Arcadia Arrows 5-0 here last Sunday on the strong two-hit pitching of Daniel Goodrich.

Rain abbreviated the game after he sixth.

Horace "Ace" Jefferson, Willie J. Cornett and Goodrich shared hitting honors, each collecting two safeties as the Dodgers scored three times in the first and once each in the fourth and fifth.

The Dodgers picked up eight hits and committed one error while the Arrows erred twice.

A former member of the Harlem Globetrotters basketball team and last year a teammate of the fabulous Satchel Paige, King packs awesome power to the plate and has speed to spare and a strong throwin arm at the first sack.

He blasted 35 home runs last season and can also play the outfield.

Herman Green, of Grand Rapids, Mich., is another 21-year-old much is expected of this season. Standing six feet-three inches, he is a long ball hitter and patrol left field. Already several major league teams have made approaches to the Star organization concerning Green's contract.

Father's Day Dance To Attract Large Crowd From All Parts Of The City Here

A Father's Day Ball will be held Sunday nite, June 19, in the Sunset Terrace Ballroom, featuring the famous Arnett Cobb and great dance band. The attraction comes direct from the Birdland Club on New York's Broadway, where a host of celebrities tabbed him one of the best saxologists in the field.

The "Wild Man of the Tenor Sax" will solidly send you with Cobb's "Smooth Sailing," "Cocktails For Two," "Walkin' Home" and "Cobb's Boogie." Mr. Saxology, as he is affectionately called by music critics, records for Columbia and Okeh Records.

Cobb was recently featured here with the Midnighters, and literally took the town with his groovy sax playing. A star studded turnout will greet the man with blowing sax. Cobb's music, rhythm, blues and ballads are solid and musically shape up as some of the best to be had in America—anywhere.

Don't miss this great Father's Day dance. For table reservations—call the Indiana Record Shop, 405 Indiana, ME. 4-0467. Tickets are on sale at The Recorder and The Sunset. Admission is $1.50 in advance, $1.75 at the door.

GEORGE SHEARING'S MGR. ADDS NEW TALENT

NEW YORK (ANP)—John Levy, personal manager of popular blind pianist George Shearing, has added singer Betty Carter and band leaders Ray Bryant and Milt Buckner to the list of clients he represents.

For the past five years Levy has taken care of the business affairs of Shearing, whom he first joined as bass player with the quartet seven years ago. Shearing, noticing Levy's business ability, soon asked him to become his personal representative at double the salary he was receiving as bassist.

Miss Carter is one of the up and coming female vocalists and has sung with Lionel Hampton's orchestra. Within a week after signing her to a contract, Levy got a lengthy session for her at Epic records.

Ray Bryant is a trio leader who has acquired a local reputation in Philadelphia. It was there that Levy first spotted him playing in a nightclub two years ago and promised him he would handle his business affairs when he did open a new office.

Buckner, a former Lionel Hampton bandsman, is highly rated as one of the top jazz organists in the business. His locked-hand method of jazz piano playing has set a trend among 88-ers and is widely copied by other keyboard artists.

A FEW SIMPLE FACTS ON Whiskey Taxes

Facts that prove FLEISCHMANN'S gives you more for your money!

Whiskey taxes are determined by Proof. Proof tells you a whiskey's "strength"—its alcoholic volume. The higher the Proof, the higher the taxes. Fleischmann's—at a full 90 Proof—pays the U. S. Government $1.03 more per case than 86 Proof brands. Yet Fleischmann's costs you less than many brands of lower Proof!

This is because Fleischmann believes in giving you the most flavor and enjoyment for your money. With most blends today no more than 86 Proof, it's easy to see why Fleischmann's, with its high 90 Proof, is the best blended whiskey value you can buy. Try it yourself—today!

APOLLO THEATRE RECORDS BROKEN BY SAMMY DAVIS, JR.

NEW YORK (ANP) — The Will Mastin Trio, starring Sammy Davis, Jr., broke all existing records during its recent stay at Harlem's Apollo Theatre.

Up until recently the record was held successfully by Lionel Hampton, who during the war smashed all existing records. In 1953 Lionel's record was eclipsed by Duke Ellington and Pearl Bailey.

The Apollo management reported that in excess of 40,000 customers paid to see the Sammy Davis, Jr. show. There is little question that even more people would have been accommodated had Sammy been able to do more than four shows daily. However, he worked more than an hour at each show and refused to cut his time, preferring to satisfy his audience.

Sammy's act included dancing, impersonations, a session at the drums, bass and trumpet and a bevy of 10 or 12 songs. He included several of his hit recordings.

Back stage, Sammy was visited by gobs of celebrities including Eddie Fisher, Marilyn Monroe, Joe DiMaggio, Marilyn Maxwell and Ed Sullivan.

Indianapolis Musicians, Entertainers To Get Major Tie-ins In New Set-up

Those eager young instrumentalists with romantic visions of leading their own bands; seasoned professionals of many years of experience; social clubs and aspiring organizations that decide NOW is the time to strike it rich, may find that decision becomes a more positive quotient in the near future.

With the advent of the booking agency of Rupert Harris and Associates, Enterprises, opening offices in Indianapolis, the organization is dedicated to: artists representation, handling of combos, orchestras, acts, entertainers, floor shows and promotional management.

Accompanied by affiliations with leading agencies on the east and west coast, the Agency makes bid as counsellors to the entertainment field in general.

An all-out campaign is being planned to put the dance bands and ballrooms back in business on a scale such as prevailed a few years ago.

A stand on public relations to re-educate the public, especially the teenagers, to appreciate and enjoy social dancing as a form of entertainment and relaxation is being planned.

The dancing public will welcome new faces and new orchestras. As such they become part of a mammoth team to keep ballroom business alive and promote the nation's dancing.

THEATRICAL AGENCY COMMISSIONS ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL IN SET-UP

Alto sax-leader, Bill Stewart, has become musical director for the newly organized firm of Rupert Harris and Associates Enterprises.

Scoring, composition, arranging and recording affiliations for the concern will be handled by the popular sax-toting maestro.

Managing the chores of both public and press relations, will be the veteran newspaperman, St. Clair "The Saint" Gibson, who is expected to lend plenty of finesse in his capacity with the company which specializes in entertainment, productions and promotions.

Errol Garner Opens At Cleveland's Loop Lounge

June 16, Garner returns to New York for a two-week booking at Basin Street, where he is set to appear with the Herman Ford.

Garner sidemen are Eugene Heard, drums, and Wyatt Rutherford on bass.

IF YOU ARE self-employed, you can arrange with your bank to buy a SAVINGS BOND for you each month, deducting the amount from your account.

Heading the entertainment package will be such names as (all in person) Roy Hamilton, the golden boy of song; LaVern Baker, the "Twisted Dee" girl; the famous Drifters, "What You Gonna Do?"; The Spaniels, "Do Wah!"; Willie Mabon, "Poison Ivy"; Little Walkin' Willie and his orch, "Blow Little Willie"; Jimmy Reed, "You Don't Have to Go"; The Hearts, "Lonely Nights"; Erskine Hawkins and his orch, and Della Reese. ## Negro Opera Foundation Stages 1st Annual NY Banquet Benefit

By CARL DITON For ANP

NEW YORK—What is probably the finest banquet and dance ever promoted here by Negro musicians, was given last week at the Hotel New Yorker by the National Negro Opera Company Foundation, Inc., Mary Cardwell Dawson, founder and president.

Purpose of this New York event, which is scheduled to be annual, was to raise funds subsidizing a future presentation of Clarence Cameron White's opera, "Ouanga," among others.

There was a splendid musical program highlighted by such experienced artists as Jon Eckles, tenor; Lisle Greenidge, baritone, and Huel Brooks Gwin, Chicago soprano. In the encouragement of new talent were Pansy Keys, soprano; Roy O'Loughlin, tenor, and Richard Brodwith, baritone, the latter two singing with superb effect the duet from Verdi's La Forza del Destino.

P. L. Prattis of the Pittsburgh Courier was the principal speaker. Dick Campbell, Nora Douglas Holt and Lou LaTour cooperated in mastering the ceremonies. There were many citations to well-known Negro musicians. And it is interesting to note that there were present four of the past national presidents of the National Association of Negro Musicians, Inc., of which Mrs. Dawson is one, to lend encouragement to this noteworthy and important event.

Miss Donegan is presently on tour in Ohio, but stated through her attorney, Walter Gordon, Jr., that she will appear at the trial scheduled June 6.

DOT DONEGAN SUES RELATIVE

LOS ANGELES (ANP)—Dorothy Donegan, famed jazz pianist, and her husband, John T. McLain, have filed suit here against her brother-in-law and former legal advisor, Atty. Crispus A. Wright, to recover real estate property estimated at $90,000. They are also asking punitive damages amounting to about $15,000.

Also named in the legal action is Wright's wife, Helen.

The suit charges Wright fraudulently transferred an apartment to his name while acting as legal advisor during the years 1952-53. It further charges the Wrights refused to return the property.

Atlanta Methodists Favor Keeping J. C.

ATLANTA (ANP) — The 150-member Atlanta Methodist Ministers' Association (white) has come out for retention of the all-Negro Central Jurisdiction of the Methodist Church.

The group passed a resolution asking the General Conference to retain the 17-conference Central Jurisdiction.

Speaking on the resolution, the Rev. Gordon Thompson, AMMA president and pastor of Martha Brown Methodist church here, said he understood the southern groups of the denomination made what amounted to a deal with other branches to keep the Jim Crow Central unit, as a price for uniting with them.

"We Methodists of the South united with other branches of the church in 1939 with the understanding that the Central Jurisdiction, providing for segregation within the church, would be maintained," he said.
